

Charles Clevenger

Alton | Monday, September 21 2020

Charles Ray Clevenger, 80, passed away at 11:10 a.m. Monday, September 21, 2020 at his home.

Charlie was born July 17, 1940, in Carlinville, IL. During his senior year of high school, he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps, serving from 1959-1965. A machinist by trade, he retired from Olin Corp. in 2002. He then opened and operated his business, Industrial Machine Sales in Alton. He was a proud member of the Marine Corp League, especially passionate about their Toys for Tots toy drive every year. He also was a member of the Franklin Masonic Lodge and the Alton Moose Lodge. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, spending time with his grandkids, and was an avid gardener.

He married Brenda M. (Joyce) Chadwick on March 17, 1983 in Roxana, and they enjoyed travelling together. She survives in Alton. Also surviving are his children, Tonya (Eric) Bechtold of Godfrey, Stacy (Loren) Godsil of St. Louis, Eric (Trisha) Clevenger of Piasa, IL, and Kelley (Rusty) Mansker of Alton; five grandchildren, Thomas Godsil, Madelynn and Mallory Clevenger, and Nicholas and Audrey Mansker; his sister, Elaine Newell of Loami, IL; a brother, John (Linda) Clevenger of Las Vegas, NV; and a sister-in-law, Gladys of Hettick, IL.

He was preceded in death by his father, Clarence Clevenger, his mother, Catherine (Calhoun) Clevenger, his stepmother, Velma McKee Clevenger; two brothers, Nelson and Henry Clevenger; and a brother-in-law, Bob Newell.

Memorial visitation will be held 2-5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 27, 2020 at Connect Church in South Roxana, IL.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to Toys for Tots or Connect Church.
