Alton | Wednesday, August 31 2022

Dorothy E. Hysten, 79, of Alton, Illinois, transitioned on Wednesday, August 31, 2022, in Towne and Country, Missouri.

Dottie was born in Alton, Illinois, to the Reverend (Pastor) Joseph S., Sr., and Adele M. (Welsh) Davenport on January 22, 1943. She went to school in Alton, Illinois. She married Robert Hysten in 1968, and he preceded her in death. She then married James Gray on December 5, 2015.

Dottie began working in area restaurants as a teenager. This helped to foster her love of cooking. She worked as a Certified Nursing Assistant in Illinois and Iowa for many years. This helped to nurture her spirit of hospitality. She was then employed as an insulator at Shell Oil Refinery in Roxana, Illinois. She retired from Shell Oil in 1991.

Dottie learned about Christ at an early age at Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church, where her father was the founding pastor. She continued nurturing her relationship with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, throughout her life. She remained an active church member by working on the culinary committee, as an usher, as a choir member, as part of the Mission Ministry, and helping out anywhere needed. In more recent years, Dottie became a member of The Bridge Church in Alton, IL., under the leadership of Pastor Steven Helfrich. While there, she worked with the culinary, prayer, and greeter ministry.

As a young adult, she was involved with the civic/social groups Elks Club and Ebonite 10. In recent years, she has been a member of the Alton Section NCNW and a lifetime member of the Alton Branch NAACP.

Dottie loved to cook her entire life and was constantly asked by family and friends to prepare her signature dishes; broccoli/rice casserole, cornbread dressing, sweet potato pies, pineapple upside-down cake, and other dishes she made with love.

She was always so excited to bless others with her dishes. This was truly a gift from God.

Dottie was preceded in death by her parents, Joseph S., Sr. and Adele M. Davenport, her brothers, Joseph S., Jr., and John Spencer Davenport, her sister Artermisher (Bea) Joiner, and a grandson, Aaron Michael Thurman.

Dottie is survived by her five daughters and their families, Stephanie (Joe) Elliott of Alton, Illinois, Constance McFadden of Grandview, Missouri, Annette (Bryon) Williams of Godfrey, Illinois, Lisa (Roger) Lovett of Foster Township, Illinois, and Tamara (Bryan) Thurman of Godfrey, Illinois, two sisters, Ida Johnson of Bettendorf, Iowa, and Mattie Southern of Jamestown, Rhode Island.
