She had 3 wonderful grandchildren whom she loved, Grace Skiff, Richard Skiff, and Dakota Mather. She also loved her brother Tony (Stacey) Woodward. Her best friend, who happened to be her sister in law Susie Deck. She was preceded in death by, her father Charley Woodward, brother, Andy Woodward, brothers in law Rick and Gary Deck and sister in law, Joyce Baker.

Barb graduated from Roxana High School and SIUE Edwardsville with a degree in accounting. After graduating she went on to earn her CPA license. She built from the ground up, a successful accounting firm, Deck and Company, located in Glen Carbon, IL.

After Barb retired, she spent her time crafting and asking Art to make her crazy dreams a reality. Always keeping Art on his toes, she always had a new way to decorate a space. Barb loved being on the water, but her favorite was walking on the beach with Art. Looking for seashells every step she took. She was always in the passenger seat ready to take a road trip to Richard's next fishing tournament. Ready to spend the day in a new place and to support her grandson. Barb traveled to Florida frequently, going to her grandson, Dakota's, baseball games. While down there, she took granddaughter Grace on shopping sprees and get their nails done. Usually, with Art carrying their bags and being their driver.
