

Cary Eldridge

Cottage Hills | Monday, February 5 2024

Cary Alan Eldridge, 57, passed away Monday, Feb. 5, 2024, at his home.

Born Dec. 26, 1966, in Alton, he was the son of David Eldridge and Shirley (Watkins) Frazier.

Cary worked as a Registered Nurse for Barnes-Jewish Hospital in St. Louis. He enjoyed going to concerts and hanging out with friends from high school. He especially enjoyed the music of Elvis Presley and The Rolling Stones.

Survivors include his mother and stepfather, Shirley and Jim Frazier of Bethalto; two sisters and brothers-in-law, Chris and Brad Cummins and Cyndi and Howard Jenkins, all of Bethalto; 3 nieces, 2 nephews and great nieces and nephews; and his longtime, special friend Ed Vincent.

He was preceded in death by his father and his grandparents, Barkley and Eva Watkins and Bill and Imogene Eldridge.

Cary's family will hold a Celebration of Life at a later date.
