Betty Lou Harszy, a resident of Cottage Hills and Bethalto, Illinois, met her Lord and Savior on February 27, at home with her loved ones by her side, at the age of 86.

Betty was the daughter of John and Ruby White and was born on July 19th, 1937.

Betty enjoyed bowling and was a member and secretary of the Friday Senior Bowling League at bowl Haven in Alton for many years. She also loved bingo and working jigsaw and crossword puzzles. She will be remembered for being a relentless champion of the Leukemia Guild.

Along with her parents, Betty was preceded in passing by her daughter, Diana Kay Harszy, who passed away at age 5 from Leukemia and by her husband, Lewis.

Those left to cherish her memory are her children, Joe Harszy Sr. (Marsha) and Jim Harszy (friend Debbie) of Bethalto; her adored grandchildren, Joe Harszy II (Diana), Amy Harszy, Jonathan Harszy, and Alex Harszy; her cherished great-grandchildren, Abigail Brown (Dylan), Tony Reed (Casey), Emily Mock (Christopher), and Greg Reed (Lauren), Layla Harszy, Jonathon Harszy Jr, Addisynn Harszy and beloved great-great grandchildren, Grayson Reed, Natalie Reed, and Otto Brown.
