

Donald Warix

Eldred | Monday, August 15 2011

Donald Lynn Warix, 65, died at 4:05 a.m., Monday, August 15, 2011 at Jerseyville Nursing & Rehabilitation Center.

He was born in Chicago, Illinois on Oct. 13, 1945, and was the son of the late Horace & Ruby (Glidewell) Warix.

In his early years, Donald worked at various servicestations in the Jerseyville area, and retired in 2005 due to deteriorating health from Everlast Pest Control in Alton, where he had been employed as an exterminator for 39 years.

He married the former Judy Ann Clendenny on June 30, 1984 at the Riverview Park in Alton, and she survives.

Also surviving are five children & their spouses, Donna Marie Warix of Alton, Sonja Marie & Steve Flemming of Rockford, Krista Nicole and Benji Flatt of Carrollton, William Matthews of Pleasant Hill, and Michael & Patty Matthews of White Hall; seven grandchildren; three great grandchildren; a brother & sister in law, Ronald & Debbie Warix of Bedford, Indiana; three sisters, Joann Drulard, Helen Stone and Brenda Day all of Jerseyville; a sister in law, Denise Warix of Walnut Log, Tn.; a brother in law, Terry Hartman of Palmyra, Indiana; and his first wife, the former Linda Tanner, mother of his two oldest daughters.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister, Carlene "Sister" Hartman; a brother, William "Sonny" Warix; and two brothers in law, William Stone & Donald Drulard.

In accordance with his wishes, his body has been cremated.

Memorial visitation will take place from 5 to 7 p.m. Monday at the Crawford Funeral Home in Jerseyville.

Memorials may be given to either the Jersey Community Hospital Emergency Room Expansion or the Jerseyville Nursing & Rehabilitation Center