

Angie Payne

Alton | Friday, January 20 2012

Angie M. Payne, 45, passed away Friday January 20, 2012, at her residence.

She was born in Cadet, MO on February 6, 1966 the daughter of Barbara (Rowe) Collins and the late Edward F. Collins.

She worked for Home Health Care for many years taking care of everyone she could. She enjoyed being around her family, especially her grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband, Greg Payne of Alton; one son and his spouse, Paul and Brooke Simmons, of St. Louis; two step daughters, Amy Knight of Alton and Jennifer Mihalich of Alton; her mother Barbara Collins, of Alton; a sister, Shelia Vickery of Alton; and one sister in law, Debra Payne of Godfrey; two special cousins Leslie and Alan Rowe, and everyone's favorites uncle Billy; and Vicki Brown and family.

In addition to her Father, she was preceded in death by a son, Michael Larry Joseph Simmons.

Per her wishes cremation rites will be accorded.

Memorial Rites will be Private.

Elias, Kallal and Schaaf Funeral Home in Alton is in charge of arrangements.

Online condolences and guest book may be found at www.eliaskallalandschaaf.com