He became a very active member of Galloway Memorial Episcopal Church in Elkin, NC where he served God through the church in whatever capacity was necessary. Bob regarded his family as the most important part of his life. He was the son, husband, father, grandfather, brother, brother-in-law, son-in-law and uncle who touched your life and made a difference. When he was not busy working or spending time with his family then he would be on a golf course. He loved playing golf in any part of the country, but most especially in the beautiful mountains of Alleghany County, NC.
