

Eva Warner

Bethalto | Monday, October 21 2013

Eva L. Warner, age 85, formerly of Alton, passed away Monday, October 21, 2013, at Bethalto Care Center.

She was born August 31, 1928, in Litchfield, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil and Carry (Evans) Hubbard. She grew up in Glen Carbon, IL.

She married Donald L. Warner on August 1, 1947 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Alton, and he preceded her in death January 15, 2010.

Mrs. Warner was a very busy gal, who enjoyed a life totally devoted to her family. She had boundless devotion to her five grandchildren. She took pleasure in her many sewing projects throughout most of her life. She was a member of Faith Lutheran Church in Godfrey.

She is survived by two daughters, Clair Smiley and her husband Alex, of Roxanna, and Carolyn Mahan, and her boyfriend, Randy Glover, of Wood River; two sons, Paul Warner and his partner, Tim Kisabeth, of Godfrey, and Keith Warner of Alton; and five grandchildren, Ann Norris Bell, Steven Rodgers, Timothy Rodgers, Nicholas Warner, and Donald Rodgers.

In addition to her husband, Donald, she is preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Vida, Florence, and Rosemary; and two brothers, Lawrence and Jacob.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 26, 2013 at 11:00 am, at Faith Lutheran Church in Godfrey with Pastor Kelly Mitteis officiating.

A private family burial will be held at a later date.

Memorials may be given to the charity of one's choice.
