Tina K. Baker

Born Monday May the 9th 1966 in Jerseyville Illinois

God called home an angel on December 11th at 1:30 p.m.

After a courageous and long fought battle with cancer where God carried her many times through the sands. Her grace and dignity along with her fighting attitude were admired by many.

She Married Craig Baker on 1/5/1995 in Jerseyville Illinois

He survives with John Baker their son at home and Kendra Sibley her daughter and husband Josh Sibley of Jerseyville and two grandchildren she adored David and Dominic. She is survived by her Sister Carolyn and Husband Terry Short from Otterville Illinois ,Brother Morris and Robin Booth of Fidelity Illinois and Sister Elizabeth (Liz)and Leon Atterberry from Elsah Illinois and numerous neicies ,nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins along with her beloved dog Sarge.

She was active in her church at Jerseyville Church Of The Nazarene for many years as Sunday school teacher, secretary and steward. She loved God with all her heart.

She worked at Beverly Farm For over 20 Years caring and giving until the cancer stopped her work there. She continued for many years being an inspiration to all who knew her. She always showed more concern for others than herself.

Tina had such great admiration and love for the outstanding doctors who cared for her

Dr.Thomas E. Ryan M.D. and staff and Dr.James V. Piephoff III M.D.and staff

A special thank you to all the wonderful workers at Willow Rose for taking such awesome care of Tina during her stay.
